EPSRA honors departing Pan-Can superintendent

OILMAN APPRECIATED - Bryan Campbell, left, departing Superintendent of Pan Canadian Petroleum's Elk Point office, received hearty thanks from the Elk Point Surface Rights Association, represented by President Alban Bugej.

Elk Point Surface Rights Association expressed sincere appreciation for two years of excellent working relations with Pan Canadian Petroleum Superintendent Bryan Campbell, with a reception in his honor last Thursday evening. Campbell is moving up the corporate ladder, and was recently transferred to Calgary. He will be replaced in Elk Point by Ron Salt.

EPSRA President Alban Bugej praised Campbell for "turning Pan Canadian into the most active oil company in the Elk Point area and achieving production levels never reached before. His superior management and technical skills resulted in the creation of a number of employment opportunities, both within Pan Canadian and in the service industries operating within the local oilpatch."

EPSRA's primary responsibility is to look after the interests of its members in those areas related to the use and protection of the land and the environment, Bugej said. "Working with people like Bryan Campbell made these tasks easy and pleasant. Bryan will always be remembered for his sensitivity to farmers' views. Bryan always insisted that his employees and the contractors working for him must respect the farming community amongst whom every oil company operates. Like other oil companies' management people in the area, Bryan recognized the mutual benefits that are achieved through working in a cooperative scenario with the agriculture industry."

"Another management skill in which Bryan excelled was his ability to recognize when a problem began to get out of hand. He would then step in, resolve it himself and repair any damage which occurred. His skills in this area are admired by all those who had an opportunity to work with him," Bugej continued.

Bugej explained that in Campbell's new position in Calgary, he will be responsible for directing policy for other heavy crude oil interests of Pan Canadian, in addition to the Elk Point area, and said he was "pleased that Bryan's influence will remain felt in this area and that we will continue to have opportunities to work with him."

Campbell found the appreciation expressed "quite overwhelming," and said that when he came to Elk Point in the spring of 1992, his job was "to implement the way the company wants to do business" with "a different management style. Coming up here, I found some things we could do better, and started approaching them in chronological order."

One of the things Campbell felt could be improved was "being good neighbors. I want to thank Alban and all the farmers. I dealt with a lot of you." (Continued on pg. 2)

Britton named Oilmen's champ

Art Britton topped 112 golfers who took part in the 11th Annual Elk Point Oilmen's Golf Tournament this past weekend, with his second Championship Flight win in the event in three years. Britton also won the championship in 1992. This year's Championship Flight was sponsored by Highland / Corod Inc. Tom Parenteau moved up from third in last year's Championship Flight to second, while Metro Papirny was third and Don Bassent was fourth.

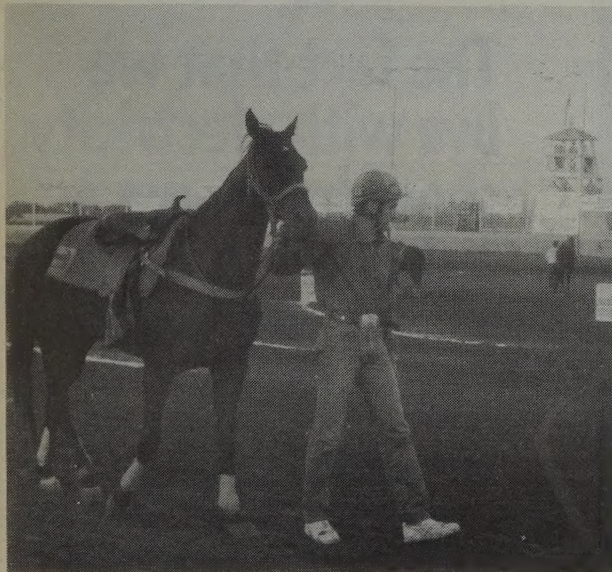

Last year's Championship runner-up, Pat Nairn, was the winner of the First Flight, sponsored by BMW Pump Inc. Bob Lee placed second, Clarence Romanick third and Don Anderson fourth in the flight.

In the Second Flight, sponsored by Leyen Oilwell Servicing, Dwayne Durkard was the winner, with Steve Brezinski second, Joe Mackinnon

TWO TIME CHAMPION - Art Britton (left) added another Elk Point Oilmen's Golf Tournament championship to his collection this weekend, and received congratulations from Tournament Chairman Ted Yarmuch.

LINDBERGH OUTRIDER RUNS WITH NPCA CHAMP - Doug Irvine was a busy man at the Northern Professional Chuckwagon Championships this weekend, outriding for several outfits, including year-end winner Brian Laboucane. Laboucane edged out Buddy Bensmiller by just 9.5 points in the final tally to win the 1994 laurels. Bert Croteau set a new track record time of 1:14.37 in the year's final performance Sunday to win the four day Lloydminster Finals show by a 2½ second margin over his father, Ray Croteau. A total of 45 outfits competed in the finals, which also determined the top 16 wagons which will go to the 1995 Calgary Stampede Rangeland Derby.

Saddle up for the Horse Show

Charlene Baker
Elk Point Agricultural Society

This coming Saturday, August 27, the Elk Point Agricultural Society is once again hosting their annual Summer Horse Show at the Ride 'N' Show Barn. It starts at 9:00 a.m. and has a full day of Western and English classes. The age groups are 13 and Under, 14 to 17 Years, and 18 and Over.

There will be two jumping classes, which are always exciting, and at the end of the day there is also Freestyle Reining. In this class the rider and horse are in costume and ride specific manoeuvres to music. Each entry is, therefore, quite unique!

There are 28 classes with prize money at $20 for first, $15 for second, $10 for third and $5 for fourth, plus ribbons to sixth place. We are very appreciative of our business community for their wonderful support in sponsoring the prize money for our classes. If not for them, it would not be possible to keep our fees reasonable for our youth riders and put on the caliber of show that we do.

This year for the 13 and Under Junior age group,

Terry Cartier's Western Wear in Vegreville is sponsoring a High Point Blanket award. In the Youth age group, Bailey's Western Wear of St. Paul is sponsoring the High Point Blanket award, and in the Senior group, the Tall Horse Saddlery of Edmonton is sponsoring the High Point award. The High Point Blankets are awarded to the horse and rider which accumulate the most points throughout the show in the following classes: Showmanship, Western Pleasure, Western Equitation, English Pleasure, English Equitation, Western Riding, Reining and Trail. The Western Pride Auction Mart of Bonnyville is also donating leather halters for the reserve High Point champions.

If you appreciate good horses and horsemanship skills, please come out and watch, and cheer our young equestrians on.

Superintendent thanked

His mandate was to "economically produce heavy oil and make it a positive, profitmaking venture. We couldn't do things overnight, but you gave us time, and we proved we were and are good community participants."

Campbell was "particularly pleased with the reception I had. I was always treated with consideration." He said it has been "an absolute delight to work here. Thanks to all who worked with me, we got good positive results."

Bugej told Campbell, in closing, that Pan Canadian had always been held in high esteem as "a gentleman company. With you here, it was even more so. We hope to have a further opportunity to work with you in your new capacity."

The dinner reception, held at Gentleman Jim's in St. Paul, was sponsored by the management of Elk Point Sand and Gravel.

The fact that we live with electricity shouldn't come as a shock.

Electricity is a fact of life. In fact, it's so much a part of everyday life that people forget the potential for accidents. Contact with overhead power lines or exposed wires can cause serious injury. Even faulty household appliances and electrical plugs can deliver enough current to kill an adult. Understanding how electricity works can keep you, and those close to you, safe. When it comes to electricity, what you don't know can hurt you. For more information on electrical safety, call your local Alberta Power office.

FCSS is on the move to our new location

Welcome back! As the summer activities wind down, we hope that everyone had a wonderful summer and is re-energized for an exciting fall! Family and Community Support Services (FCSS) is in the process of moving to our new location at the Peter Fidler Centre (4902-51 Street). We'll be open for business as usual 8:30 to 4:30 Monday through Friday. As we move and unpack we would appreciate your patience and understanding until we get settled.

For any new or existing residents who might be unfamiliar with FCSS, we encourage you to phone or drop by for a visit to learn about the programs and services we provide to the community. FCSS believes in the value of the individual, the strength of the family, and the concept of people working together to achieve a healthy, supportive community. Our philosophy is "people helping people to help themselves." Volunteer assistance is greatly relied upon and we welcome community input and direction. Drop by or call us - we'd love to hear from you!

Here's some information on programs that are gearing up for the new season:

JACK AND JILL PLAYSCHOOL

There will be a parent orientation meeting tonight (August 23) at 7:00 p.m. at the Further Education Centre. Parents are to attend the orientation meeting before registering their child in Playschool. Registration will occur from Monday, August 29 to Friday, September 2 at the FCSS Office (during regular office hours: 8:30 a.m. - 12:00 noon, 1:00 - 4:30 p.m.).

The good news is that registration fees have gone DOWN this year! Registration fees are $25 per month. More good news is that we've moved to a new location - the Elk Point Elementary School. Many thanks to Mayor Buck, the County of St. Paul No. 19 and Don Conrad for making this possible. We're excited about holding Playschool in this bright and cheerful environment.

We are also pleased to welcome Diane Pashulka (Mudryk) as the new Playschool instructor. Diane has been a familiar face at Elk Point Library coordinating the summer reading program. She brings both educational as well as practical experience from a number of centres in the child care field. We know the Playschool program will benefit from Diane's enthusiasm, numerous skills and pleasing personality. Welcome, Diane!

For those who may be unfamiliar with Playschool, it is a learning - growing experience through play for healthy growth and development of 3½ to 5 year olds. Our primary focus is on meeting the social needs of the children. The program meets half days on Tuesdays and Thursdays at the Elementary School and will start up on Thursday, September 15, 1994. Call 724-3800 for more information.

PARENT NURSERY

Parent Nursery has also moved to their new location at the Baptist Church. Many thanks to Lawrence Modin, Jim MacLellan and the church membership for their assistance. The Parent Nursery membership is excited about the upcoming season in this excellent facility. Parent Nursery provides children aged birth to preschool with a stimulating environment and allows for exchanges of information and ideas between parents. The cost is $35 per family per year. Parents must accompany their children at all times as this is not a child care service. Call president, Jennifer Dallaire at 724-3613 or FCSS at 724-3800 for more information.

ELK POINT CHILD CARE SERVICES

Are you looking for a very special child care arrangement? We offer individual care for your child in a warm and nurturing family environment. Nutritious snacks and lunches and a variety of activities are provided each day. Care givers have first aid in child care and homes are monitored regularly. You also receive a tax receipt for income tax purposes and subsidization assistance is available. For more information call Deanna Easthope, EPCCS Coordinator at 724-3933 or 724-3800.

MEALS ON WHEELS

Meals-On-Wheels provides hot, nourishing meals Monday through Friday to those who are unable to prepare their own (ie. people who are ill, aged, handicapped, recovering from surgery or illness, or those who lack the strength or motivation to prepare adequate meals). The cost is $4.00 per meal and clients can receive meals on a part time or full time basis. Weekend meals can also be provided. Meals are prepared by the Elk Point Hospital and delivered by volunteer drivers Hazel Hannah and Rose Soloway. Call the Meals-On-Wheels volunteer coordinator, Olga Ruzyski at 724-3547 for more information.

Water tower restoration now in progress

Bob Hendriks
Heinsburg Community Club

Railroad water towers, like grain elevators, are disappearing from the prairie landscape. Once used to store water gulped by thirsty steam locomotives, the octagonal structures became redundant when diesels replaced steamers in the 1950s, many deteriorating until they had to be torn down, or collapsed on their own, rotten and dangerous.

Such is not the case in Heinsburg, Alberta, a tiny hamlet boasting more streetlights than people, but full of community spirit. There, on a well-kept grassy area, once part of the CN right-of-way immediately above the North Saskatchewan River, stands an 18-meter-high tower enclosing a 137,000 litre (30,000 gallon) wooden tub still complete with the water-level ball on a mast high above.

Since early July, 1994, it has boasted a new medium-brown asphalt roof funded by the Heinsburg Community Club, replacing the remains of the original cedar shingles covering it since 1928, and protecting the structure until the six walls can be replaced, sometime in the future.

The landmark, rapidly becoming a tourist attraction and one of only two towers left standing in Alberta on their original sites, has been inspected by Bill Tracy, senior planning advisor of Alberta Historic Sites, who is helping the Heinsburg Community Club with their restoration plans.

It is none too soon that the club has taken steps to save this structure because it is showing serious signs of decay, and left without repairs much longer, it would have joined its long-gone cousins as pieces of scrap in somebody's woodpile. The community realized long ago that protection and preservation of the building was needed, but plans had to be placed on hold as CN retained control and was non-committal about the project. It wasn't until after the takeover of the CN right-of-way by the County of St. Paul that the tower got the attention it needed, the result of cooperative county councillors.

Now Heinsburg proudly joins the ranks of places like St. Paul (flying saucer landing pad), Glendon (giant pyrohy), Lloydminster (border markers), Elk Point (Peter Fidler statue) and Cutknife, SK (giant tomahawk), a sample of communities who consider their unique structures as part of their identity. Heinsburg uses the water tower logo on its large, impressive entrance sign.

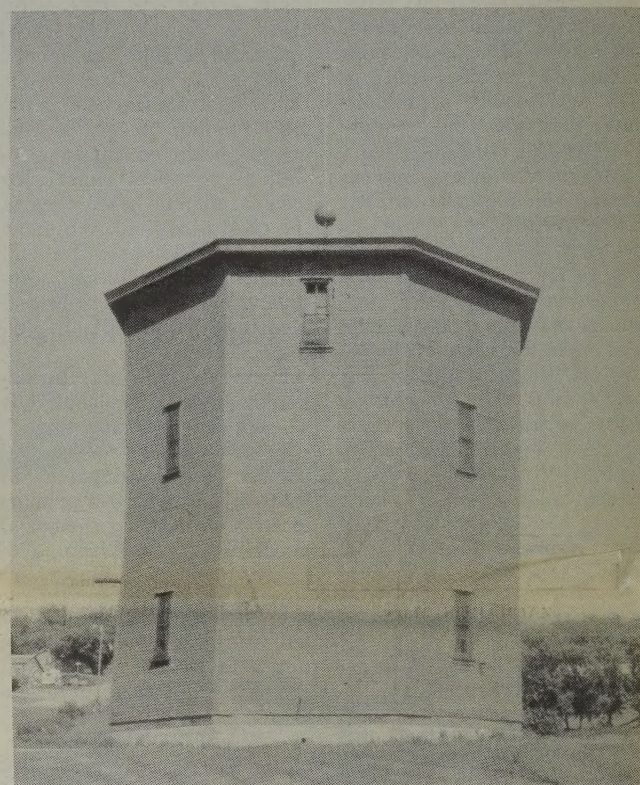

The Heinsburg Community Club also built an 80 square meter (approx. 800 square foot) all-season camp kitchen nearby, calling it "The Heinsburg Water Tower Campsite." Boasting a new wood-burning campstove, bathrooms, tables and power and beautiful riverside views, the $26,000 facility partly funded by grants is open to the public all year round.

Later, the club is planning to restore portions or all of the CN train station located just west of the campsite. Although it may not be old enough to qualify for historic site funding, tentative plans are to thoroughly clean it to house a museum and tea-house.

For further information, contact Alvin Meger at 943-2333.

LANDMARK SAVED FROM RAVAGES OF TIME - Heinsburg's railway water tower is one of only two remaining on its original site in the province, and recently received a new roof to protect the structure from the elements.

Discount brokers take the sales pressure out of investing

J. Lang Ellison BComm. BSc. (Agric.) PAg.
Manager, Toronto Dominion Bank

We thrifty, conservative Canadians have a long tradition as "savers" who work hard for what we earn, and take pride in conserving what we manage to put aside. Many of today's investors continue that saving tradition by choosing a discount broker so that they can pay lower commissions when they want to buy or sell a wide variety of investments, from government bonds or GICs to Canadian and international equities.

Discount brokerage firms were founded to serve the varying needs of independent investors by providing efficient and convenient order execution without sales pressure - and with commissions that can be as much as 84 percent lower than those charged by leading full-commission brokers.

When discount brokers were established over ten years ago, independent investors who did their own analysis and research wanted an alternative to full-commission brokers because they saw no benefit in paying for research services and advice that they simply didn't need. The discount brokers offered a wide variety of investment alternatives, efficient trades at lower commissions, and convenient services that, in some cases, included 24-hour access by telephone. This new approach to brokerage met many investors' needs then, and continues to meet them today.

Now the discount brokers' approach to investing serves a large new group of investors; those who, like many of us, were among those traditional "savers." Today, as more and more Canadians look beyond what simple saving can do for them and their financial future, they discover the advantages of using a lower-cost discount broker to consolidate their investments - including mutual funds, self-directed RRSPs or RRIFs, bonds, Canadian and foreign equities, mortgage-backed securities, GICs and more - often with one phone call and one easy-to-read statement.

The discount brokers continue to expand their services as investors' needs grow and change. For example, clients of one discount broker can now get market quotes and portfolio details, and enter their own orders, on-line and in real time, by personal computer or telephone.

Information about the no-pressure, cost-saving approach that discount brokers bring to investing is readily available from anywhere in Canada - one broker even offers a 1-800 service for their "snowbird" clients who are temporarily out of the country.

If you would like more information about Green Line Investor Services, the discount broker that is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Toronto Dominion Bank, please call TD's Green Infoline at 1-800-387-2092.

T.I.C. Talk

Sherry Pelech
Tourist Information Clerk

The season is winding down and not a moment too soon as the tourists are drying up (well, not the TOURISTS as much as the source of the tourists).

We had an interesting chat the other day with one guy who congratulated us (the town) on not getting involved in the oil boom or promoting tourism or in any way making ourselves noticeable to the 'outside world' (?). He claimed that it left all the beautiful countryside, lakes, beaches, berry patches and recreation facilities for the exclusive use of a few discriminating people like himself. He also commented that he returns to Elk Point often because of the 'good food' - a pat on the back for the local restaurants.

And with tourism waning, and local attractions uncrowded, how many of you local people have taken advantage of the facilities available? Have you seen the Pioneer Museum? - It's unsurpassed. Been to the Interpretive Centre? - Interesting displays, incredible view, great walking trails, friendly and helpful staff. Toured the Salt Plant? - It's been there nearly fifty years. Viewed the Mural? - See if you can find your friends, your family, your neighbors or even yourself. Visited the local Library? - New books, old books, videos, tapes, reading programs and much, much more.

We may be accused of lacking in tourism promotion but that doesn't mean that we lack anything to promote.

Obituary

ZACHARUK, Mary

God saw you getting tired
When a cure was not to be
So He closed His arms around you
And whispered "Come with Me."
You didn't deserve what
You went through
So He gave you rest
God's garden must be beautiful
He only takes the best.
And when we saw you sleeping
So peaceful and free from pain,
We could not wish you back
To suffer that again.

On August 15, 1994 Mrs. Mary Zacharuk of Elk Point passed away suddenly at the Red Deer Regional Hospital at the age of 81 years. She is survived by 3 sons and 2 daughters, Pete and his wife Lillian of Elk Point, Victor and his wife Theresa of Siccamous, B.C., Walter and his wife Shirley of Surrey, B.C., Betty and her husband Bob Clayton of Red Deer, and Elise and her husband Ron Swift of Belleville, Ontario; 9 grandchildren; 9 great-grandchildren; 3 sisters, Nancy and her husband Steve Magdiak of St. Paul, Anne Magdiak of Myrnam, and Pauline and her husband Peter Rawlek of Spirit River; and 3 sisters-in-law, Mary Smoliak of Myrnam, Jessie Smoliak of Camrose and Jean Smoliak of Myrnam. She was predeceased by her husband John in 1981; 1 son and 1 daughter David and Pauline; her parents John and Doris Smoliak, and 4 brothers, John, Bill, Mike and Peter Smoliak.

TIDBITS

What one needs in gardening is a cast iron back with a hinge in it. - Anonymous

Triumph is just 'umph' added to 'try'. - Anonymous

We are put here to grow, and we ought to grow, and to use all the means of growth according to the laws of our being. The only real satisfaction there is, is to be growing up inwardly all the time, becoming more just, true, generous, simple, manly, womanly, kind, active and this can we all do, by doing each day the day's work as well as we can.

- James Freeman Clark

FOR BID BY TENDER

The County of St. Paul No. 19 invites tenders for the salvage, demolition, and removal of the old Early Childhood Services Building (presently known as the Elk Point Community Services Building) located on the NE-01-57-07-W4 (Block 11, Plan 6879 E.T.) in the Town of Elk Point.

Tenders for the above noted will be received up to, and including, 4:00 p.m., Friday, September 02, 1994 and are to be addressed to:

Mr. R. Krawchuk
County Administrator
County of St. Paul No. 19
5015-49 Avenue, St. Paul, AB., T0A 3A4

Further information is available by telephoning the County Office at 645-3301.

The lowest or any tender may not necessarily be accepted and the County of St. Paul No. 19 reserves the right to reject any and all tenders.

C.J. Petroleum celebrates grand opening

It was just a little bit quiet in Elk Point's restaurants last Wednesday at noon hour. The most popular lunch spot that day was at C. J. Petroleum's UFA Bulk dealership, where new owners Gail and Chris Havener were serving up hot dogs, smokies and all the trimmings in celebration of their Grand Opening.

Close to 120 people ignored the showery weather and circumnavigated the excavated streets to attend the event welcoming the new proprietors. A large green-and-orange tent protected luncheoners from the showers.

Not that Chris Havener is new to the petroleum business: he served as delivery driver for former proprietors Ruth and Ed Vogel for eleven of their 14 years at the dealership. His wife Gail has a good knowledge of the book-keeping side of the business, gleaned from 14 years at the Alberta Treasury Branch.

Draws were held for two $25 UFA gift certificates, won by Jim Povaschuk and Peter Charchun, and a number of door prizes. UFA caps went to Dan Smith, Ken Hillebrand, Art McCagherty and Walter Moneta, golf balls to Terry Grekul, travel mugs to Michael Povaschuk, Iris Brown, Mae Hendrickson, Andrew Pearson and Ed Brown, and a tire gauge and knife to Ann Capjack.

Organizers needed for Terry Fox Run

Volunteers are needed to help organize the 14th Annual Terry Fox Run on Sunday, September 18, 1994!

The Provincial Office of the Terry Fox Foundation is looking for a new Run Organizer and committee members to help with planning and implementing festivities for the Run in Elk Point.

For more information on how you can help, please contact 1-800-563-8369.

NEW ENTREPRENEURS - Gail and Chris Havener cooked up a welcome hot lunch for their customers and friends on a chilly, damp day at their Grand Opening last week.
